Wedneſday, April 5 1704

From the Bruſſels Gazette, dated March 21.

Conſtantinople, Jan. 16. The new Sultan has caus'd the Grand Vizier, who was elected by the Rebels in the laſt Revolution, and whom he ſome time ſince baniſh'd to the Iſland of Scio, to be put to Death, and his Head to be brought hither, where it has been expos'd for ſome Days upon a Stake before the Gate of the Seraglio, and with it the Head of the Aga of the Janizaries (who was the Perſon that chiefly incited the Troops to revolt againſt Sultan Muſtapha,) and ſeveral other Heads of the principal Rebels, which were brought hither from different Places whither he had ſent them on divers pretences. Theſe Executions of the Officers of the Army who were of the moſt turbulent and ſeditious Spirits, and the Death of his Brother Muſtapha, who ſince his Impriſonment died of the Dropſy, which 'tis ſaid he contracted by immoderate grieving at his Misfortune and Diſgrace, ſeem to have eſtabliſh'd Achmet firmly on his Throne: And his great Preparations of War both by Sea and Land, argue him to have ſome conſiderable Deſign in View, which will quickly diſcloſe it ſelf; mean time the general Opinion is, that he will declare againſt the Muſcovites.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated March 27.

Letters from Prague of the 15th adviſe, that the ſeveral Corporations of that City had given in a computation of the Money the wealthieſt Citizens are ſuppos'd to have by them, a third part of which they are to lend to his Imperial Majeſty on very advantagious Terms. That the Magiſtrates of that Place, uſe great diligence to ſee the ſuperfluous Church Plate carried into the Mint, to be employ'd in enabling his Imperial Majeſty to carry on the preſent War. That the Recruits and new Levies are carried on apace throughout the Kingdom of Bohemia; and that a great number of Horſes is brought up, for the uſe of the Emperor's Armies.

From Capenhagen of the 18th of this Month, they write, that the 17th at Night the Corpſe of the late Prince George, his Daniſh Majeſty's youngeſt Son, was carried to Rotſchild to be interr'd in the burying Place of the Royal Family; That Dr. Muller, the King's Chaplain, was conſecrated Biſhop of Funen in the Cathedral Church of Copenhagen, in the preſence of the whole Court; and that the King of Denmark makes great Preparations of War, both by Sea and Land.

And from Emerick, of the 25th Inſtant, they tell us, that a Placard was publiſh'd there the 16th in the Name of the King of Pruſſia, and affiix'd to all the Doors of the Roman Catholick Churches; ſignifying, that his Majeſty being inform'd the Sieur Cock had taken upon him to act in that Town as a Biſhop, without Licence firſt had of his Majeſty, His ſaid Majeſty declar'd all he has hitherto done to be null and invalid; and commanded his Officers to take Cognizance of the Actions of the ſaid Monſieur Cock.

Deale, April 3. Her Majeſty's Ships the Swiftſure, Dartmouth, Winchelſea, Margate, Princeſs Ann Hoſpital, Terror and Star Bomb Ships are here, with 15 Merchant Ships outward bound for the Weſt Indies, and ſeveral Victuallers Tenders and Coaſters.

'Jamaica, February. 6. We are frequently 'alarm'd by ſmall Parties of the Enemy, who 'come in a Night from Cuba in Sloops and 'Barcalongas and run into ſmall Creeks, 'where they cover their Veſſels with Boughs 'and landing hide themſelves in the Woods, 'till they find an Opportunity to ſurprize the 'Plantations. Within theſe two Months 'they have made three Attempts, particularly, on the North Side of the Iſland, the 'two firſt were with ſmall Parties, but a few 'of our People got together, in number two 'thirds leſs than the Enemy, and kill'd the 'Enemies Captain wounded and took the 'Quarter-Maſter and three more, and made 'the reſt retire in Confuſion to their Veſſels. 'The laſt Attempt the Enemy made was with 'eighty Men, ten of which were left in their 'Barcalonga and the other 70 landed and 'march'd a pretty way up into the Country, 'and took and carried off eleven Slaves, but the 'Country being alarm'd, one of our Captains 'got together twelve Soldiers and nineteen 'Planters, and marching twenty Miles thro' 'Woods and by-Ways, came up with the 'Enemy as they were re-embarking, and fell 'upon them with ſo much Vigour, that they 'kill'd twenty of the Enemy and took four of 'them Priſoners, the reſt got off with all the 'haſte they could make in their Barcalonga, 'ſo that we cannot tell how many of them 'were wounded.
